

Thank you!!!

My name is Hilda Yamhelwa Selena. I am a Ex-Eben Danges High School learner. I passed my grade 12 last year 2012. Living with a single parent is not easy. She could not afford everything I needed but God made a way where there seemed to be no way. He also works in ways we cannot see.

Thank you for being my breakthrough. I had everything I needed for school, stationery and uniform was up to date. I appreciate everything you have done for me.

I am planning on studying Tourism management. I love the tourism industry. It is a wide field, so there are many opportunities in it. I love to meet new people and learn their way of living. Traveling the world is also part of my big dream.

Thank you for helping me kick-start my dream and work on my success. May ~~God~~ God bless you as you bless others.

H Selena
